

The National Tour Association strongly supports The Freedom to Travel to Cuba Act, H.R. 874 and S. 428. The Freedom to Travel to Cuba Act would enable Americans to travel to Cuba to experience the rich diversity of Cuban culture and heritage. Americans should have the opportunity to explore the world unfettered by travel and currency restrictions. The Freedom to Travel to Cuba Act would enable Americans to travel to Cuba to experience the rich diversity of Cuban culture and heritage.

NTA stands ready to assist tour operators interested in learning about this potential new market as well as fostering relationships between the U.S. and Cuban tourism industries. We hope that passage of this legislation will usher in a new era of opportunity for U.S. tour operators and American travel consumers.

NTA salutes the leadership of Sen. Dorgan, Sen. Enzi, Rep. Delahunt and Rep. Flake on this important issue and commend them for sponsoring the legislation.
